("US Bank") and Wells Fargo Bank, N.A. ("Wells Fargo" and together with US Bank, "Plaintiffs"), and Defendant Villa Vecchio Ct. Trust ("Villa Vecchio" and together with Plaintiffs and Villa Vecchio, the "Parties"), through their counsel hereby respectfully request the Court enter an order, pursuant to Local Rules IA 6-1 and 7-1, extending the time for Plaintiffs to respond to Villa Vecchio's Renewed Motion to Dismiss Complaint ("Renewed Motion to Dismiss," ECF No. 53) otherwise due on July 10, 2019. The Parties request that the time be extended to July 19, 2019. This is the Parties' second request for an extension of time and is based on the following:

Previously, the Parties sought an extension of time in order to meet and confer regarding either the potential to dismiss certain of Plaintiffs' claims, withdraw the Renewed Motion to Dismiss, or otherwise limit the issues contained in the Renewed Motion to Dismiss. The Parties have not yet reached resolution of those issues, but plan to at least dismiss two of Plaintiffs' claims by stipulation thus limiting the issues in the Renewed Motion to Dismiss and conserving judicial and Party resources. The Parties believe that this additional extension will suffice to allow them to continue to consider alternatives to fully briefing the issues raised in the Motion to Dismiss.

Thus, the Parties continue to consider stipulations to limit the issues in the Renewed Motion to Dismiss or to brief the issues in summary judgment, which motions are due July 31, 2019. The outcome of those considerations will conserve judicial and party resources as identified above. Additionally, Villa Vecchio has recently retained its undersigned counsel who needs additional time to consider the stipulations potentially dismissing several of Plaintiffs' claims and withdrawing the Renewed Motion to Dismiss. Therefore, the stipulation and extension are made by the Parties in good faith for the benefit of each and for the benefit of the Court.
